WILL BE HEARD
DURING CARNIVAL

By permission of Queen Liliuokalani, the chants of Kamehameha and Pauahi will be used by the singers at "The Wailing of Umi and Piikea" at Waikiki during Carnival week. These are chants of which the queen is the author and are only used with her consent. They are used on certain occasions at Kamehameha schools, and when a request for permission to have them at the coming production was made, the committee in charge was referred to the Queen. John Wise, the chairman, reported to the committee this morning that he had made the request and she had stated that she would be pleased to have them used. This will add historic interest to the production, for these chants, with changes to make them applicable to the chief and princess of a former era, are well suited for "Umi and Piikea."

The building of an old-time grass hut or pavilion which will be the scene of the meeting of Umi and Piikea, was another matter discussed this morning. It will have coconut palm trunks for its supporters, and will be of woven coconut leaves and grass. Judge A. S. Mahaula, George E. Smithies and T. B. Thiele were chosen a committee to look after this feature.

Sealed tenders will be opened at the department of public works at noon, March 20, for furnishing water meters, boxes, corporation and stop-cocks for the Honolulu waterworks.

WOMAN WOULD

E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Richmond, Pa. — "When I started taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound I was in a dreadfully rundown state of health, had internal troubles, and was so extremely nervous and prostrated that if I had given in to my feelings I would have been in bed. As it was I had hardly strength at times to be on my feet and what I did do was by a great effort. I could not sleep at night and of course felt very bad in the morning, and had a steady headache."

"After taking the second bottle I noticed that the headache was not so bad, I rested better, and my nerves were stronger. I continued its use until it made a new woman of me, and now I can hardly realize that I am able to do so much as I do. Whenever I know any woman in need of a good medicine I highly praise Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound." — Mrs. FRANK CLARK, 3146 N. Tulip St., Richmond, Pa.

DRYDOCK RUMORS FROM S. F.
NOT TAKEN SERIOUSLY LOCALLY

That Honolulu should, before taking any action in the matter, endeavor to establish the authenticity of the statements made by the San Francisco press, which are to the effect that the people of that city are endeavoring or will endeavor to use their influence in Washington toward securing the Pearl Harbor drydock appropriation for a similar project at Hunter's Point, California, is the opinion of George R. Carter, president of the Honolulu Chamber of Commerce, as given in the Star-Bulletin this morning.

"The first thing which should be done is to find out whether or not the opinion of the San Francisco press, as set forth in recent editions of the newspapers there, is the opinion of the people of San Francisco," said Mr. Carter. "As to the commercial bodies of Honolulu taking any action, nothing can be done until we get the truth one way or another, here."

At a recent meeting of the Chamber of Commerce, the members, acting upon the suggestion of Mr. Carter, called to Walter F. Dillingham, in Washington, asking his advice as to whether the local commercial bodies should take further action against the proposed abandonment of the local drydock site. Mr. Dillingham cabled a reply to the effect that it would be unwise to take such an action, and further informed the chamber that he would inform it immediately in case impetus was given the abandonment proposal by outside parties.

"It might be well to cable Mr. Dillingham regarding the alleged action on the part of San Francisco," said Mr. Carter. "But I believe that if there were any delegates from San Francisco in Washington at this time, endeavoring to persuade Congress to transfer the appropriation, Mr. Dillingham would at once inform the chamber or other persons interested."

A number of local business men, when interviewed this morning, seemed inclined to disbelieve the statements of the San Francisco press and, in fact, all other statements regarding the proposed action. "As a member of the Union League of San Francisco I have heard lots of statements from that city regarding the dock at Honolulu," said Senator James L. Cooke. "There was great glee in certain circles in San Francisco when the news reached there of the destruction of the dock at Pearl Harbor."

It is still believed locally that the report on the Pearl Harbor drydock, made by Engineer Alfred Noble who visited here shortly after the disaster and made an inspection of the site, sweeten the stomach, remove the sour, undigested and fermenting food and foul gases; take the excess bile from the liver and carry off the constipated waste matter and poison from the bowels.

A Cascarets tonight will straighten you out by morning—a 10-cent box will keep your head clear, stomach sweet, liver and bowels regular and make you feel cheerful and bully for months. Don't forget the children—advertisement.

will be accepted by the navy department.

"If the story is true, and action needed on the part of the local commercial organizations, the Merchants' Association will be in the front rank of the defenders," said Wallace R. Farrington, president of that organization.

"The last I heard, the people here were supposed to keep quiet on the Pearl Harbor drydock question. You can bank on one thing. If the word comes that there is need for action, we'll get the action here without the slightest question. But we first want to know what line of action will be most effective. Every member of the Merchants' Association is a worker but he wants to be sure that his work will not be a case of wasted energy."

CENSOR FOR MOVIES IS ASKED BY LEAGUE

"Believing the exhibition of uncensored moving pictures is hurtful to the community, especially to the training and the manners of children, frequent such shows, we desire your body to give us or our representatives a hearing before the proper committee of what ought to be done to remedy the existing evil, and especially with a view of establishing an unpaid board of censors."

The foregoing is the gist of a communication which has been forwarded the board of supervisors by the children's welfare committee of the Humane Society, composed of Mrs. L. L. McCandless, Mrs. F. H. French and Miss Helene Haneberg, in order to have established in Honolulu a board of censors to pass on all moving picture films before they are shown at the local theaters. It is expected that the members of the committee will appear before the board at an early date in order to present their views on the matter.

Safeguard To Women's Health

Thousands of women are using various forms of anti-septics as preventives of disease and safeguards to good health. Many such preparations in use are actually worthless and positively dangerous. Tyce's Antiseptic Powder is absolutely safe to use, and has been recommended by physicians for more than twenty-one years. Unequaled as a preventive of contagious disease, unsurpassed as a douche and highly efficacious in avoiding contagion, healing diseased tissues, ulcers and delicate membrane passages. A 25-cent package will make two gallons standard antiseptic solution. Sold by druggists everywhere. Send for booklet and free sample. J. S. Tyce, Chemist, Washington, D.C.

MRS. J. S. SPEAR
DIES AT HOME
ON THE COAST

Mrs. Joseph S. Spear, Jr., well known and with a host of friends in Honolulu, died this morning at her home in San Francisco, according to cable news received today by her son, James D. Dougherty, of Wall &amp; Dougherty, 2nd director-general of the Mid-Pacific Carnival.

Mrs. Spear was the wife of a well-known San Franciscan, Joseph S. Spear, Jr., surveyor of the port under President McKinley and President Roosevelt and a leading figure in California business and social circles. Mrs. Spear had visited several times in Hawaii, her last trip being about two years ago, and her friends here are numbered by the score. They were shocked today to learn the news of her death.

Wall &amp; Dougherty's jewelry store was closed today out of respect to the memory of Mrs. Spear.

DENVER POST SENDS CORRESPONDENT HERE TO WRITE ABOUT HAWAII

Joseph M. Grady, noted as a traveling correspondent for the Denver Post, is expected to arrive in Honolulu on the Pacific Mail liner Korea next Thursday. He will stop off at Honolulu to gather material for some newspaper articles about this city and the islands.

The Denver Post's enterprise in sending Mr. Grady to Hawaii is a continuance of its policy of giving its readers articles about interesting spots. Miss Frances Wayne, a special writer for the Post, was here a little more than a year ago and wrote a series of "stories" about Hawaii, afterwards published in the Post. Mr. Grady also represents the Denver Weekly Post and the Kansas City Post.

HAU TREE TO BECOME PRIVATE RESIDENCE

The Hau Tree, at Waikiki beach, will be closed the last of this month, A. C. Montgomery, manager of the place, so stated this morning. For some time it has been rumored that the Hau Tree was about to be closed as a boarding-house and be converted into a private residence, but it was not until this morning that any authoritative statement was made by the management.

"We will close the last of this month," said Mr. Montgomery this morning. "The place will be taken over by A. F. Wall as a private residence at that time. Robert Lewers, owner of the place, has agreed to this change."
